The Public Schools open next Monday morning, September 2nd.

LOST.—Small pocket date book with papers. Return to this office and get reward.

Mrs. GEORGE RION went to Cincinnati yesterday to inspect and purchase a fall stock of millinery.

LOST.—At the L. &amp; N. depot, a gold cuff button with monogram. Return to this office and receive reward.

MR. AND MRS. LYR. PURNELL have moved from the Burr property to the house occupied by John Feeney.

The regular meeting of the Elk lodge will be held at its hall to-night and business of great importance will be transacted.

THE L. &amp; N. road did a big business on Sunday. Excursions were run in all directions and so many people left the city that the town seemed almost depopulated.

CHIEF OF POLICE JOHN McD. ROSS, of Lexington, was removed from office Friday night by the Board of Police and Fire Commissioners, and Walter Marshall, a Lieutenant on the force, was appointed in his place.

COAL.—Try our South Jellico Blue Gem or mixed cannel, they are all good. Order your winter coal now.
1901-02 J. S. WILSON & BRO.

BURGLARS attempted to effect an entrance into the residence of Mr. John Feeney, on Seventh street, the other night while Mr. Feeney was absent from the city. They were frightened away by Mrs. Feeney firing a revolver, and did not secure any booty.

FOR SALE.—I will offer for sale at 11 o'clock a. m. on the public square on Court Day Sept. 2d, two new Kentucky wheat drills. G. W. Hazlewood, Auctioneer.

TOMMY CRAWFORD, the up-to-date barber, has added to his already complete establishment a complete face massage treatment outfit. This treatment is guaranteed to remove all black heads and imperfections on the face. It makes the skin fresh and rosy, and gives a youthful expression to old and wrinkled faces.

Ask your dealer for a Stoner, 5 cent cigar home made.

MESSRS. TOM JUDY, of North Middletown, George Morrow, of Clintonville, Wm. McClintock, of Millersburg, Neville Fisher, of Paris, and W. G. Talbot, of Clintonville No. 2, comprise the list which has been furnished by the County Democratic Committee from which to select a member of the State Election Commission.

DURING the trip of the Kentucky Press Association recently Editor Miller, of the Kentuckian-Citizen, lost his shoes which were removed from the Pullman one night while he was asleep. After trying on a pair of valises and two soap boxes he finally borrowed a pair of shoes from Frank Remington, and was happy for the remainder of the trip.

A RATHER peculiar circumstance happened in the vicinity of North Middletown last week. A small sized cyclone tore up a medium sized tree by the roots, carried it about a quarter of a mile and transplanted it in a sink hole, piling the dirt around it so as to cover the roots and fairly packing it down. The tree is alive and growing fine, not even a leaf having withered.

In Judge Smith's court last week E. Renick, colored, was fined $17 for a breach of the peace.

Ann Henderson, for not appearing in court as a witness, was fined $3 for contempt.

Bob Ford, for threatening Ann Henderson with violence if she came to court, was also fined $3 for contempt and given a lecture by the Judge.

THE Paris Gas plant has been sold to Col. J. W. R. Cline, of Covington, formerly manager of the Covington gas works. Colonel Cline purchased all of the stock except that owned by the city, the principal owners being Messrs. J. T. Hinton, A. Shire, George Alexander and Charles Stephens. Extensive improvements will be made in the plant at once.

ONE of the largest audiences seen inside the Grand Opera House for many months witnessed the performance of Herrmann the Great Friday night. This was the opening performance of the season, and the audience was evidently much pleased with the entertainment as evidenced by their liberal applause. Since the close of last season the entire house has undergone a much needed cleaning, and presented a very different appearance.

A Bold Robbery.

About dusk on last Friday, Mrs. Stewart, wife of the milk man who lives on the Georgetown pike near the Lyle place, heard a noise in her sitting room. When she went to investigate she found a negro man going through her trunk. Upon her demanding to know what he wanted he drew a revolver and commanded her to stand still and keep her mouth shut under penalty of death. He then proceeded to help himself and shortly after departed. It is sincerely hoped he will be speedily caught and made an example of. This business of highway robbery and burglary by worthless negroes is getting to be altogether too frequent for the public good.

See that you get a Stoner when you call for it. Home made.

Shoe Firm Assigns.

Messrs. Davis, Thomson & Isgrig, the Main street shoe merchants, made an assignment Saturday morning to R. C. Talbot and John S. Smith, in order to close out their business and dissolve the partnership. The liabilities are about $3,000 and assets about the same. It is expected that the business will be again resumed in the near future. The members of this firm are all very popular gentlemen, and it was a great surprise as well as a matter of regret that the assignment was made.

Announcement.

I will be in North Middletown on Tuesday and Friday of each week during Sept. Dr. J. T. Drake, Osteopath.

Matrimonial.

Marriage licenses have been issued by County Clerk Ed Paton as follows during the past week: August 20th, John Brown and Miss Rosie E. Hodge; Aug. 21, Henry Longbottom and Miss Lula Ritchey.

The marriage of Miss Aileen Wilson, daughter of the late Dr. Wilson, of this county, to Mr. Carl, of Cynthia, will occur sometime in October. Announcement of the date will be made shortly. Miss Wilson is a very charming young lady with a host of friends and is a typical belle of the Bluegrass. Mr. Carl, who is a prominent citizen of Cynthia, is to be congratulated in securing such a prize.

The marriage of Miss Lucy Mason Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Johnson, of this city, to Mr. J. Sims Wilson, son of the late Dr. Wilson, and a prominent agricultural merchant of this city, will take place some time in October. Miss Johnson is a very charming young lady, possessing a sweet disposition and charming manners. Mr. Wilson is one of our representative business men and best citizens.

The Frankfort Argus has the following notice of the approaching nuptials of Miss Mayme McDermott of this city and Mr. J. B. Hanley, of Frankfort:

"The marriage of Mr. J. I. Hanley, of this city, and Miss Mayme McDermott, of Paris, will be solemnized at the Catholic Church in the latter city at 6 o'clock a. m. Tuesday, September 17th.

Mr. Hanley is one of the best known and most popular young business men in this city, where he has resided for several years, and holds a very responsible position as general manager of the Kentucky Distilleries and Warehouse Company's interests in Kentucky, while Miss McDermott will be remembered by Frankfortians as the popular and efficient head milliner for Mrs. M. W. Stephens for the past two years. Strikingly beautiful and equally charming of manner, she has, by her sweet and attractive ways, so characteristic of the true Kentucky girl, won many friends during her temporary residence in the Capital City, who will heartily welcome her to Frankfort in September as a permanent resident. The many friends of the happy and popular young couple extend heartiest congratulations and best wishes for a long and happy life of wedded bliss.

WANTED.—One hundred thousand bushels of bluegrass seed.

E. F. SPEARS &amp; SONS.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. W. S. Calvert, of Mason county, died Saturday, aged 70 years. She was the mother of Mrs. Charles Meng, of North Middletown. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Meng, Calvert Meng and Chas. Meng, Jr., attended the funeral.

Chas. Downing, a prominent farmer living near Washington, Mason county, fell dead from heart disease yesterday. His son Jno. R. Downing while here with his brother-in-law, Caswell Goff, was notified of his death.

THE Spooner Dramatic Company opened a week's engagement at the Grand last night presenting "The Pearl of Savoy" to a good audience. The company is far above the average repertoire company and made a hit. The bill for to-night will be the pretty four act play, entitled "The Golden West."
